BDA ultimately recommended that the Sellers broaden the strategic buyer pool to include not only peers and participants within Model Solution’s value chain, but also strategics seeking new, sector-agnostic growth engines. BDA approached 143 potential strategic and financial buyers globally, ensuring “no stone was left unturned”. BDA played a leadership role in the due diligence and negotiation processes, maintaining competitive tension
- BDA delivered a successful outcome for the Sellers, balancing up-front value maximization for Laird with additional future upside for Crescendo, and crafting a transaction structure that optimized risk through the adoption of mechanisms such as buy-side Warranty & Indemnity insurance
